BRENNAN MAY GIVE BOND.

Habeas Corpus Writ Against Sher iff in Alleged Dynamiter's Case.

Republic from Jefferson City, Attorneys Noonan and Porter of St. Louis caused a writ of habeas corpus to be issued by writ of habeas corpus to be issued by Judge Gantt of the Supreme Court, ordering Sheriff Dickmann to produce the body of Morris Brennan, who, it is contended, is illegally held by the Sheriff.

Brennan was convicted of dynamiting the conduit of the Olive street line at Boyle and Maryland avenues at the time of the strike last year. He was sentenced to the Pentitentiary for ten years.

In March his attorneys obtained a stay of execution pending an appeal to the Supreme Court. The appeal will not come up for hearing until October, and the writ of habeas corpus is issued to compel the St. Louis authorities to release Brennan on proper bond.

WICKES DIVORCED FOR THE SECOND TIME.

Matrimonial Ventures of Sleeping-Car Millionaire Have Not Proved Successful.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, June 25,-Justice Trunx in the Supreme Court, on a report by Colonel Pranklin Bartlett, to-day granted a decree of absolute divorce in favor of Clarissa A. Wickes from Thomas H. Wickes. The papers in the case were sealed by special order of the Court, an unusual proceeding. Wickes was formerly president of the Pullman Palace Car Company, but when that concern was consolidated with the Wagner Company he was made vice president.

WICKES TACITURN.
REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, June 25.—Thomas H. Wickes, vice president of the Pullman company, was in the city to-day, but kept out of the way of the newspapers, as he did not wish to discuss his latest divorce case. At his way of the newspapers, as he did not well to discuss his latest divorce case. At his office in the Pullman building it was said that he had left for the day. The negro servant at his palatial residence at No. 483 Grand boulevard said that he had not been home in the evening to dinner and that he might not be home at all to-night.

Matrimonial Ventures.

The matrimonial ventures of Mr. Wickes were said by his friends to have turned out unfortunately through no fault of his own. He has been married twice and twice di-vorced. His daughter, Florence, by his were said by his friends to have turned out unfortunately through no fault of his own. He has been married twice and twice divorced. His daughter, Florence, by his first wife, elopsel a few years ago, and was shortly afterwards divorced from the man she married. She is now on the stage.

Mrs. Wickes No. 1 secured a divorce April 15, 1856, on grounds of cruelty. Mr. Wickes allowed the decree to be entered without protest. It was explained by his friends privately that his home had been unhappy for some time and that he was anxious for the separation, and so the divorce proceedings were arranged on the ground of cruelty, that he might gain his freedom.

It was said that Mrs. Wickes No. 1 used morphine and cocaine and drank cologno water and was frequently not in a fit state to care for her household. When the separation came it was accomplished by a family split. There were two sons. One, Thomas H. Wickes, Jr., went with the father, and the other with the mother. The daughter, Florence Lellian Wickes, also went with the mother. The son and daughter who stayed with the mother with the mother.

Before this, however, an elder daughter, Miss Annette Wickes startled Chicago society by eloping December II, 184, with George Q. Ford of Janesville, Wis. She had only met Ford a month before at the house of a friend. He was the proprietor of a roller skating rink, and Miss Wickes was at that time receiving the attention of a number of society men in Chicago. She was noted for her dashing style of beauty, a tall, willows blonde, and fond of elaborate gowns.

Former Suit is St. Louis.

In February, 1895, she went to St. Louis and while visiting her sister there filed a suit for divorce from her husband on the ground of desertion. At the time of the divorce she said she had never loved her husband, but had married him "just to spite an old beau." Her sister, Mrs. Walker, traveled with her.

At the time she was applying for the divorce in St. Louis she was studying for the stage under the tutelage of John W. Norton. After her d

Considine and Merelith had been mortal enemies for about three years, although they were prior to that time warm personal friends.

When Meredith was made Chief of Police he served notice on Considine that the latter could not remain in the city and do business. In retaliation, Considine publicly made charges of corruption in office against Meredith, and reiterated them until the Law and Order Leasue took the matter up. A Council committee investigated and made a report to Mayor Humes advising the removal of Meredith.

Mayor Humes thereupon requested Meredith's resignation.

Ex-Chief Meredith was a son of W. M. Meredith of Caucago, chief of the National Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Considine belongs to a family well known in Eastern sporting circles and has a wide acquaintance throughout the United States.
